NORWEGIAN BINGO

Norwegian Bingo

Many lodges engage in activities that are not specifically Norwegian. With a little extra effort, many of these activities can be given a Norwegian flavor—something of Norwegian culture and heritage can be added and the activity turned into a learning experience.

Needed for Norwegian Bingo

A person to do the calling in Norwegian.

At each table, a person who can help the players with the Norwegian numbers.

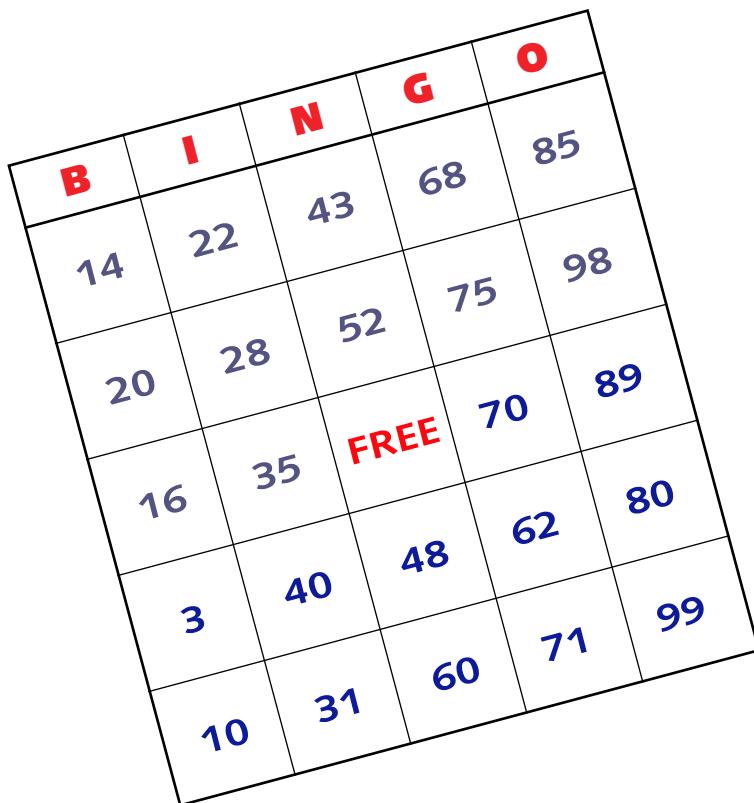

Prizes

Norwegian foods like fish balls, geitost (goat cheese), flatbread, lefse, sardines, knekkebrød, pewter buttons.

The prizes should be presented in a closed sack or at least wrapped in something so people can't see what is inside. The prizes should be opened at the table. The caller or another person then can teach everybody present what the various prize items are called in Norwegian.

The Norwegian Bingo will be a slow game, but fun and informative.

In case there is no one in your lodge who speaks Norwegian, maybe this list of numbers might be helpful:
