Ron Stubbings Re-elected Sons of Norway International Vice President

MINNEAPOLIS – Ron Stubbings, Port Coquitiam, British Columbia, was re-elected International Vice President at Sons of Norway’s 2016 International Convention held last month in Tacoma, WA. Stubbings has served as Vice President since 2014; his new term will extend until the next election at the 2018 International Convention.

As Board Vice President, Stubbings will continue to work with lodges and the Sons of Norway Board of Directors to advance the goals of the organization and assist the President in various capacities. A member of Sons of Norway since 1976, Stubbings has served the organization in many capacities including International Director, 2010-2014; Vice President, Sons of Norway Foundation, Canada; Benefits and Corporate Matters Committee member; Co-chair, 2006 International Convention; President, District Lodge 7, 2004-2010; Varden Lodge 7-019 President and other leadership positions.

Stubbings’ goals for his position include helping Sons of Norway maintain relevance today while adhering to the organization’s core beliefs and values. Stubbings is currently employed as Operations Manager at Cargill, LTD. In addition, Stubbings is President of Norwegian House Society and Director, Scandinavian Community Center Society, located in Burnaby, B.C., Canada.

Sons of Norway, a financial services and international cultural organization headquartered in Minneapolis, began with shared values and a simple promise of financial security when like-minded people came together to protect their families, celebrate their culture and strengthen their community.

For more than 120 years, we’ve lived our mission to promote and preserve the heritage and culture of Norway, celebrate our relationships with other Nordic countries and provide quality insurance and financial products to our members. Now more than 52,000 members strong, we play an active role in communities throughout North America and Norway.
